

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's telephone privacy law protections.

Indiana's telephone privacy law has very much improved my families quality of life a lot. We used to get a lot of calls every night plus we were always afraid to answer the phone and had to screen all of our calls and always had the chance of missing a important call.

My family is very grateful for Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law.

Thank You For are consideration.